Bradshaw--Blair.

As was announced in the News several weeks ago, the marriage of Miss Nora Bradshaw to Mr. L. C. Blair was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bradshaw, near Montpelier, on Thursday afternoon the 28th ult. The attendants were Miss Carrie Bradshaw, sister of the bride, and Dr. Jack Bolin. The wedding party was elegantly attired and the ceremony was beautifully said by Eld. Z. T. Williams.

Many friends witnessed the solemn vows taken by this popular and very deserving couple. In testimony of their standing in the community, there were many valuable and useful presents.

Soon after the ceremony the wedding party and a number of friends left for the home of the groom, a new residence in Glenville, that had been put in order for the reception.

A most delightful supper was in waiting, highly enjoyed by the many present.

The bride is one of Adair county's best young women, and the groom is a prosperous merchant. The best wishes of this paper is extended.

Talks on Genesis.

Beginning next Sunday night, at the Presbyterian church, the pastor will give the first of a series of talks on the Book of Genesis. These talks are to be given on Sunday evenings, and will be illustrated with appropriate stereopticon views. Special evangelistic services will be conducted at this church throughout next week. Earnest preaching, good music and a hearty welcome for all who will attend, will characterize these services.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by Paul Drug Co.

A boy named Burbridge, about 16 years old, who resides at Creelsboro, was visiting at the home of Finis Burbridge, on Harvey's Ridge, last Thursday. While fooling with a pistol it was accidentally discharged, the bullet lodging in his left leg. Dr. Cartwright cut it out.

Mr. B. W. Pierce who has been teaching in Casey county for the last two or three years has accepted a position as store-keeper--guager and entered the work last Monday. Mr. Pierce removed his family to this town last week.

Mr. John and Walter Morrison took a little hunt, one day last week, in the Milltown section and brought back fifteen rabbits. Just how many they failed to cripple or kill is an unknown quantity to the writer.

Murray--Butler.

After a long courtship, Mr. Turner Murray and Miss Lora Butler were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Butler, last Wednesday afternoon, December the 27th, Eld. Z. T. Williams officiating. Quite a number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The couple will reside at the Murray home, two miles West of Columbia.

The groom is a gentleman of high character, and one of Adair county's best farmers. His friends are numerous, all of whom will be glad to learn that he has been happily married.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Butler, who live on the pike, two miles out of town. She is a descendant of an old and highly respected family, the Butlers having been here almost since the formation of the county. She is a young woman of strong character, and having been reared upon the farm, there is not a doubt but she will be a help-mate to the gentleman of her choice.

The News, together with a host of friends, extend best wishes.

Will Make No Change.

I have traveled for Otter & Co. Louisville, for the past nine years in this section of the State, and during that long period I have met but few obstacles in building up a liberal business for this well-known and very reliable firm. I have endeavored to be courteous and the merchants generally have rewarded me. I am truly thankful for the patronage I have received, and I hope to merit the continuance of the same during the year 1912. In this connection I desire to say that Otter & Co. feel as grateful as my self. I start the first of the year with the determination of increasing my business over 1911. I ask my friends to remain with me, assuring one and all that the favor will be highly appreciated.

Hoping that each of my customers will enjoy a prosperous year; that good health may attend them,

I am Very truly,
S. C. Neat,

Mr. Geo. H. Gowdy, President of the pike Company, was in Columbia last Monday. He stated to The News that he was endeavoring to contract with a gentleman who owns a steam roller, to put the pike between this place and Campbellsville in fine condition. He further stated that if he failed to deal with the man he was now negotiating with, he would employ another man if one can be found. If he fails in this last effort, he will buy a steam outfit, and do the work himself. The work will be begun early in the Spring.

G. B. Cheatham, of Milltown, bought from W. L. Walker, of this city, one of the finest Aberdeen Angus yearling bulls ever seen in this section. He is as good as you can find in any section, and Mr. Cheatham is therefore working in the interest of his section of the county. A liberal patronage in due time should be given. The price paid was only $50 dollars, but that does not represent the true worth of the calf.

Saved His Wife's Life.

"My wife would have been in her grave to-day," writes O. H. Brown, of Muscadine, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infalible for coughs and colds, its the most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemophages, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Paul Drug Co.

Anyone who does not want to receive a publication will have no trouble in discontinuing it if you notify the publisher that you don't want the paper any longer provided you owe nothing. Do not continue taking the paper until you are pressed for payment and then "swell up" and say you "never subscribed for it." No publisher wants to force anyone to take his paper, if he does not want it, at the same time he expects those who take his paper to pay for it just the same as they pay for any other debt.

Not one of us can tell what the new year holds in store for us. Its possibilities for good may be greater, its temptations more numerous and severe than in the old year. This much is true in a great measure, the new year will be to us what we make it. If we resolve to enter upon its responsibilities, with a determination to profit by the experience of the past, we will have started well.

Smith Willis.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Fannie Willis in the Zion community, when her daughter, Nancy Lou, was united in marriage to Lourad M. Smith of Louisville, at nine o'clock a. m. December 28th. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Elizabeth Holliday, they were ushered to the marriage altar by A. S. Chewning and Miss Mary Garnett, where, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, Rev. D. H. Howerton, the pastor of the bride, said the words that pronounced the happy pair one. The bride was dressed in a handsome blue traveling suit with hat to match while the groom wore the conventional black.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Louisville where they will make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Fannie Willis and is one of the most popular young women of the Zion community and in the county where she has taught for several years. The groom is a son of Waller Smith, of Cane Valley, but for two years has been located in Louisville as one of the City managers of the circulation department of the Louisville Times.

Their many friends wish for them a long and prosperous as well as a happy journey through life.

Public Sale.

On Wednesday, the 10th day of January, I will, as administrator of the estate of the late S. R. Walker, sell the following personal property, owned by the late said Walker, the sale to be at Nell, Ky.

8 yearling mules.
10 work mules.
5 head of horses.
15 or 20 head of cattle.
A lot of stock hogs.
100 barrels of corn.
A lot of hay and other feed stuff, farming implements, household and kitchen furniture.
All amounts $5 and over, will be sold on six months time. Notes must be well secured, and bearing 66 per cent. interest from date.

A. C. Pulliam Adm'r.

Green River Bridge Completed.

The steel bridge across Green river at Old Neatsville, has been completed and received. It is a very superior structure, and will be a great convenience to the people, and is a great credit to the Fiscal Court who ordered it, and with the aid of a liberal subscription paid in by people who will derive the greatest benefit. The completion of this bridge makes five steel structures that have been built in Adair county in recent years. The total number of bridges being six. There are two more that are badly needed, one across Russell's creek at or near the old Cravens ford, and one across Pettisford, near the home of Mr. R. R. Conover.

During the months of January and February we will send the Adair County News and the Daily Courier-Journal, one year each for $4.00. The Daily Courier-Journal six months and the Adair County News one year for $2.75. The Daily Courier-Journal, three months and the Adair County News one year for $2.00. Remember that this unprecedented offer is good only in the months of January and February. Now is the time to subscribe. This is Presidential year and every body should keep posted.

The younger set spent the week delightfully. With the exception of Monday night there was a gathering each evening, and each meet brought great enjoyment. There is nothing like being young. Everything you see and hear is amusing--happy go lucky with the entire crowd, the troubles of the older set not bothering the younger crowd in the least. It's "Jennie put the kettle on" and "Come under my honey my love" with the latter, the former are somewhat proxy, and sometimes talk politics and about the single rule of three.

For Sale.

A complete saw mill outfit, either size 35 boiler 25 engine, Giser or 25 boiler, 20 engine--Case, with night saw rig. Reasonable price, cash or trade. This machinery is new and as good as made. Write, wire or call on us.

Wolford Bros.
Casey Creek, Ky.

Miss Mary Lucy Lowe entertained a few of her girl friends Friday afternoon. Delightful refreshments were served. Those present were, Misses Mae Stultz, Ella Walker, Ruth Summers, Mary Miller and Vic Hughes.

STATE OF KENTUCKY.

County of Adair, )
I, W. L. Winters, Cashier of the above named Bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
W. L. Winters, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by W. L. Winters this 19th day of Dec. 1911.

My commission expires January 14, 1912.

[Clem Keltner Notary Public Correct--]

J. F. Pendleton
C. O. Moss
J. A. Diddle,
Directors.

At the opening of the week of prayer at the Methodist church, last Sunday night, Eld. Z. T. Williams and Rev. D. H. Howerton both made splendid talks.

Rev. Howerton spoke of the excellent community in which we live, told of the many advantages over other towns, and he also took occasion to speak of the meanness that some people indulge in--their disgraceful conduct, etc. He spoke in plain and unmistakable language, but he dealt in facts, and all good people endorse what he said. Public sentiment can put down every form of vice and the righteous people should get busy.

A few days ago Mr. John Faulkner, of Taylor county, son of Mr. Thomas Faulkner, and Miss Ivy Sublett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sublett, Cane Valley, surprised their many friends and their parents by going to Jeffersonville, Ind., where they got married. The groom is an industrious young man and the bride was a very popular young lady of her home town. Upon their return they were forgiven and warmly congratulated.

Adair Circuit Court.

B. S. Miller & Co., Pliffs.,
vs.
Prigilla Jones & Dfts.

The above styled action pending in the Adair Circuit Court has been referred to me to receive and take proof of claims against the estate of J. T. Jones, (of color) deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said Jones are directed to present them to me in my office in Columbia, Adair County, properly proven before the 15th day of January, 1912.

W. A. Coffey, Master Commissioner Adair County, Ky.

The audiences that gathered at the Presbyterian church during the holidays were highly entertained by Rev. J. R. Crawford, who with the aid of a stereopticon lantern, displayed oriental pictures upon a canvass, explaining their meaning, etc. The story of "The Other Wise Man," written by Dr. Henry Van Dyke, was given in picture and it was of special interest to those who had read the story. The pictures of the nativity of the Savor of man, were also beautiful and very helpful.

Mrs. A. R. Tabor, of Crider, Mo., had been troubled with sick headache for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. Sold by Paul Drug Co.

If you want to keep posted during the year 1912, subscribe for the Daily Courier-Journal. The price of the C. J. is $6.00 a year, but if you will send your subscription to The News office, we will furnish the Daily Courier-Journal and our paper one year each for $4.00. This offer is good during January and February.

New Law Firm.

Judge W. W. Jones and Mr. J. R. Garnett have formed a partnership in the practice of law, their office being in Judge Jones building over Mr. Frank Sinclair's store. Judge Jones needs no introduction to the people of this county, as he has practiced at the bar for thirty years, save eleven years he was on the bench as the Circuit Judge of this, the Twenty-ninth district, hence his opportunities for being learned in the profession are well-known, and he is recognized as a lawyer of ability.

Mr. Garnett is a young man who has practiced for several years. He is studious and has a bright future before him. He possesses the one great essential which is necessary in being successful, he is in love with the profession, and besides he attends to his business strictly, and can be relied upon to do his work understandingly and to the perfect satisfaction of clients who may call at the office. We predict that this firm will secure a liberal share of the practice in this section.

Death of a Good Citizen.

Mr. Henry Farris, who was one of Adair county's best citizens, died at his late home, near Cane Valley, last Sunday night. Just before Christmas he was out hunting and was accidentally shot in the knee. Blood poison set up, which resulted in his death. He was about forty years old, a son of "Uncle" Billy Farris, and leaves a family. He will be greatly missed in the community, and his death is a serious blow to his wife and children.

Williams--Winfrey.

One day last week, Mr. R. D. Williams and Miss Bessie Ray Winfrey were quietly married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. A. Winfrey, who resides near Edith, this county.

The groom is a young farmer, a son of Mr. Welby Williams, and has many friends. The bride was a very popular young lady of the community where she resided. May peace, happiness and prosperity attend them as they journey through life is the wish of their many friends.

Notice.

All persons will take notice that from and after this date the stock law in the town of Columbia, Ky., will be strictly enforced, as we now have a Marshall to look after all violation of ordinances.

The following gentlemen comprise the Town Board: W. R. Myers, Mayor, John Lee Walker, Charles Sandusky, Marvin Young, Bruce Montgomery, L. C. Winfrey was elected City Attorney. J. G. Eubank, clerk; and Geo. R. Coffey, Marshall.

There were fewer drunks during the holidays than any Christmas for a number of years. There were several persons noticed to be under the influence of spirits, but the ones who indulged were perfectly quiet, and there were no disturbances. It is bad to drink liquor to excess, but we are glad that the boys of this community handled it with care, using but little during the holidays. The moderate drinker, that is the one who starts taking whisky occasionally, is the one who ultimately makes a drunkard, hence it best not to use it at all unless prescribed by a physician.

During Attorney General Garnett's absence from Columbia Mr. G. P. Smythe, a well-known lawyer, will occupy the office over the post-office temporarily vacated by the first named gentleman.

The L. V. Hall residence all the buildings pertaining thereto were sold at public outcry last Monday, J. W. Jones, of Glensfork, becoming the purchaser at $925. This property is located on Glasgow road in the suburbs of Columbia. The bid was rejected.

Miss Mattie McClister, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McClister, are natives of Adair county, was married in Krum, Texas, a few days ago to Mr. Roline Naylor. A great many friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride is a niece of Mr. J. A. Young, this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Lowe gave a most delightful six o'clock dinner last Friday. Those invited were Judge Junius Hancock and wife, Mr. J. D. Lowe and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Patterson, Messrs. J. W. Flowers, Rhu Squires and J. E. Murrell. After the refreshment hour Mr. and Mrs. Lowe entertained their guests with some very charming music.

Wedding at Sewellton.

On Sunday morning December the twenty-fourth, Miss Mallie Murray and Mr. Ernest Lewis a prominent business man of Albany, Kentucky, were married at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray.

It was one of the prettiest of home weddings; the rooms were beautifully decorated with evergreens. The bride was very lovely in white satin, chiffon and orange blossoms and the brides maids were also handsomely gowned in white. The bride and groom preceded by Misses Beck, Martha Murray, Messrs. Orville Holt and Clayton Long, entered the parlor to the soft sweet strains of the wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Miss Pearly, and in the presence of a number of friends and relatives the wedding ceremony was impressively said by Rev. Tarter.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have the best wishes of many friends and relatives. And so Russell County lost one of its best young ladies.

Another Dry Goods Store.

T. C. Taylor, Marvin Young and B. N. Evans make up a new firm, who will open out a general line of dry goods, notions, etc., in the Butler building East corner of the public square. The stock of groceries owned by Mr. Young, now in the building, will be disposed of at once. Mr. Taylor is an experienced dry goods man, and he has the reputation of being a live wire. Mr. Evans is also an experienced man. Every body knows Marvin Young.

Mr. Walter McKinney, a young man of Mt. Salem, Lincoln county, who came here to spend the holidays with his friend, Mr. A. S. Chewning, was called home on a sad mission last Thursday. While out hunting a message came, stating that his mother had met with a stroke of paralysis, and was lying critically ill. He left immediately after receiving the telegram to be at her bedside. He had met with a number of friends here, who deeply sympathize with him, and trust that his mother will recover.

Lightning Kills Few

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at Paul Drug Co.

Just before Christmas Mr. T. F. Collins, of this place, registered one hundred dollars to his son, Chester, who lives in New Mexico. The registered pouch and letter reached its destination, but the money had been taken out. An effort is now being made by the post-office department to locate the thief.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Montgomery entertained the following last Saturday evening, a magnificent 6 o'clock dinner being spread: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Stultz, Mrs. Lucy Follis, Messrs. George and Ray Montgomery, A. S. Chewning, Ewing Stultz and Ray Flowers. After the sumptuous meal delightful music was rendered.

Frank Winfrey and Mike Winfrey, deputy sheriffs, arrested on Melson's Ridge, last Thursday night, Grover Cape and Jim Shearer and brought them to Columbia Friday morning. They were arrested on a capias profane sent from Russell circuit court. They were taken to Jamestown.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch for the first symptom, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be ward off. For sale by Paul Drug Co.

Mr. Geo. A. Atkins, of Milltown, met with a serious accident Christmas night. He was shooting skyrockets to please his children when one exploded too quick burning his right hand very badly.

Mr. Elmo Strange has removed into the dwelling vacated by Mr. V. Sullivan, located on Bowmar Heights. Mr. Sullivan removed to a new cottage in the Mulligan addition, recently erected by Mr. Luther Brockman.

If you want good meal, meal that you can eat go to Myers & Wilson.
